

KITE BROKE UP BIG CRAP GAME

Arrested Ten Colored Men Monday Night.

FINED $10 AND COSTS EACH

Were Cornered in Left in a Building Within City Limits, When Officer Learned of Game and Made Haul. City Benefited $100.

There was a little crap party in the left of a certain building in this town Monday night. Whether it was a progressive crap game or the straight article where potes and naturals are made and the money changes hands as rapidly as corn comes from a sheller, makes no difference; but the game was in full progress when Officer Kite, as his name indicates, "kited" down upon the crowd and arrested the whole business.

In the mayor's court the following morning Will Strothgar, Walter White, Ed Cunningham, James Turner, Jim McOlellan, George Williams, Louis Bell, Ernest Hickman and Peter Brown, all colored, were arraigned in the mayor's court upon the charge of gambling.

"I never shot no crap, Mistah Mare," remarked one of the defendants. "I was jus' dere kinder 'sociaten wid de res,' and I sho' ain't guilty."

"Well," replied the mayor, "you ought to be ashamed of yourself for 'sociaten' with such a bunch of sinners as I see before me. They have all pleaded guilty and you look like you are guilty yourself, but have come up here and endeavored to lay the blame on the others who were present, and have like men acknowledged that they were playing dice. I ought to fine you $10, but inasmuch as I am going to make it light on the others, I will give you the same sentence—$10 and costs, or 30 days; but if you ever come before this court lying again I'll give you all the law will permit and more than you will expect."

All offenders paid their fines and as a result the city is $100 better off for the game—the only party to which profit accrued.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally, in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $10.00 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circular and testimonials.
